Ms. Womack made a motion for Mr. West to draft a regulation for Telehealth and bring back to the next meeting. Ms. Jones seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Ms. Amanda Bachman, Registered Dietitian Licensed in Ohio. Ms. Bachman was inquiring about Kentucky's licensure policy about contacting patients who reside in Kentucky via telephone when the Practice" and does Kentucky provide short term exemption across state line. The provider appointment was in Ohio. Ms. Bachman asked the board "What does Kentucky consider " Point of Practice" and does Kentucky provide short term exemption across state line. The Board referred Ms. Bachman to KRS 310.070. Mr. West recommended for Ms. Bachman to visit the LRC website at <http://www.lrc.ky.gov/KRS/310-00/005>

Ms. Kathryn Tucker informed the board that her CEO and Director of Nursing wanted her to find out the procedure if there is one with RD;s writing and changing diet orders and order supplements. Mr. West informed Ms. Tucker that the Board advises that she should yield to your facility's guidelines, policies, and procedures related to order writing. Mr. West stated that the activity she described is within the scope of practice for a dietitian licensed in Kentucky, However, your facility may choose to employ a different procedure based on other considerations such as CMS guidelines. The licensure board does not enforce those guidelines.

Ms. Allison Hayden e-mailed the board regarding Kentucky Nutritional Consultation. Mr. West responded to Ms. Hayden stating that the board does not offer a nutritional consultant credential. Mr. West recommended for Ms. Hayden to review the scope of practice for a dietitian and nutritionists closely as one may not practice as one unless licensed or working under the operation of an exception to the law. Nor can an individual represent themselves as a dietitian or nutritionist or use any words of combination of words that may have that impact.

The Board received an e-mail with concerns regarding the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. AND is the new name that ADA has chosen to use. Mr. West drafted a letter of concerns to Dr. Bergman, Ph.D., President Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Ms. Gregory made a motion for the drafted letter to be sent to Dr. Ethan A. Bergman, Ph.D. at the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics stating that A.N.D. is advocating that its members use the title "Registered Dietitian Nutritionist". Ms. Jones seconded the motion. Motion carried.
